

DIVERSITY TRAINING: Workshops & Presentations

Introductory Session (1 – 2 hours) – No Charge

These sessions provide information on the programs and services of the Association for New Canadians as well as provide a general overview and introduction to diversity and cultural sensitivity. The session can be used as part of a staff meeting or professional development day and would be tailored to the needs of the participants.

Half-Day Session (3 – 4 hours) - $400

These workshops are a combination of interactive activities, awareness raising exercises, and facilitated dialogues on diversity. The content is depended on the needs of the participants. All participants receive a resource materials package, follow-up assistance, and support and guidance after the workshop is completed. Refreshments are not included in the price, but can be provided at an additional cost.

Full-Day Session (5 – 7 hours) - $800

These workshops are a combination of interactive activities, awareness-raising exercises and facilitated dialogues on diversity. The workshops further expand on the immigrant experience and will include a presentation and question and answer period with a New Canadian. The content will be depended on the needs of the participants. All participants would receive a resource materials package, additional workshop supplies/handouts, follow-up assistance, and support and guidance after the workshop is completed. Lunch and refreshments are not included in the price, but can be provided at an additional cost.

